Introduced by Senator Pan

February 25, 2015

An act to amend Section 633 of add Section 633.02 to the Penal Code, relating to law enforcement.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 424, as amended, Pan. Law enforcement: communications.

Existing law establishes various prohibitions against eavesdropping and recording or intercepting certain communications. A violation of these prohibitions is a crime. Existing law provides that specified law enforcement officers are not prohibited by those provisions from overhearing or recording any communication that they could lawfully overhear or record prior to the January 1, 1968, effective date of those prohibitions.

This bill would—include similarly provide that the provisions prohibiting eavesdropping and recording or intercepting certain communications do not prohibit any POST-certified chief of police, assistant chief of police, or police officer of a university or college campus—in the list of law enforcement officers to whom the prohibitions described above do not apply. acting within the scope of his or her authority, from overhearing or recording any communication that he or she could lawfully overhear or record prior to January 1, 1968, in any criminal investigation related to sexual assault or other sexual offense. The bill would also provide that those provisions also shall not prohibit those officers from using or operating body-worn cameras. The bill would also state that these provisions shall not be used to impinge upon the lawful exercise of constitutionally protected rights of
